Arizona schools have the unique opportunity to implement energy-saving projects with ARRA funds allocated to the School Facilities Board and the State Energy Office. Schools interested in applying for these funds should understand the requirements and the application process.

The Arizona School Facilities Board, the State Energy Office and APS invite you to attend a special workshop to learn how to leverage these funds and plan projects that save energy, reduce costs and create sustainable benefits for the community.

Attendees will walk away with an understanding of:

- The energy grant application process
- Project eligibility requirements
- Important application timelines
- Working with Energy Service Companies (ESCO's)
- Project financing options
- How utility rebates can be leveraged with energy grant funds

The workshop is free to school districts and their designees, but registration is required.
