

You're invited to attend a
K-12 ADVOCACY TRAINING WORKSHOP

Presented by the Arizona School Boards Association

Tuesday, December 1, 2009 at 6:00 p.m.
East Valley Institute of Technology
Health and Sciences Building

1601 West Main Street
Mesa, AZ 85201

Want to be an effective advocate for your district and public school students while working with others who share your passion and commitment?
NOW IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY!

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

In this fast-paced, interactive workshop led by the advocacy staff of the Arizona School Boards Association, you'll acquire the information, skills and techniques needed to effectively engage your legislators on K-12 issues important to your community, including K-12 funding. You'll also learn how to build a community coalition to support education.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Parents, students, teachers, community leaders, city and town government officials, school board members, school administrators, district and school employees and anyone who wants to lift their voice for public schools.

MORE INFORMATION

Contact Beth Sauer, 602.254.1100 or bsauer@azsba.org

