

BECOME AN ASBA ORGANIZATION AFFILIATE MEMBER

Show your support for public education in Arizona!

The Arizona School Boards Association is continuing to build alliances with business and industry to improve support for public education. We recognize that the business community contributes substantially to the support of education in the state, and we are pleased to provide an Organization Affiliate Membership. Your membership dues will be used primarily to support leadership training and education activities for school board members and school administrators.

As an Organization Affiliate member of ASBA, you will receive an outstanding package of benefits:

A 25 percent discount on advertising in the ASBA Journal, our quarterly membership magazine.

Authorization to promote your company as “an Organization Affiliate of the Arizona School Boards Association” on your business collateral material, stationery and web site.

Recognition of your support of ASBA and public education in Arizona through a full listing of your company name, address, telephone number and web site in the ASBA Journal, on the ASBA web site (with a link to your company web site), in the annual ASBA membership directory, and at the ASBA/ASA Annual Conference.

Subscriptions to the ASBA Journal and the ASBA Report Card, our biweekly member newsletter.

Annual membership dues for Organization Affiliates are $250.

To join ASBA and begin receiving your membership benefits, simply return the membership acceptance form with your check for the full amount to ASBA.
