

Refresh and refine your leadership skills at the ASBA SUMMER LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The "Art" of Leadership

July 23-25, 2009
Little America, Flagstaff, AZ

General Session Keynotes

"Board Leadership for Academic Excellence"

Lisa Bartusek and Susie Oelsen of the Iowa School Board Association

Also presenting a leadership session on "Board Leadership in Action"

"How the Economic Crisis Impacts Decisions at the Local Level"

Economist Wayne Stutzer

Also presenting a leadership session on "Why Economics Matter: The Art of Using Economic Forecasts in Planning School Facilities, Budgets and Bonds/Overrides"

"Legislative and Legal Update"

ASBA staff members Janice Palmer, Beth Sauer and Chris Thomas

Leadership Sessions

- Succession Governance Management and Mentoring New Board Members
- An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth a Pound of Cure: How a Proactive Approach Can Reduce Your Legal Expenses
- Using the Superintendent Evaluation to Move Your District Forward
- Building and Monitoring Budgets in Small Districts
- Choosing Your Leader – The Right Way
- Advocating for Your Students
- Moving Talk to Action – Using This Information When I Return to the District

Special Opportunities

Kick-off Session: "What I Wish I Would Have Known Prior to Service" - A governance discussion by a panel of retired board members.

Individual Board Planning Session - Interested boards with a quorum of members attending SLI may post a special meeting notice and utilize the expertise of ASBA staff to assist in an afternoon of board planning. Please note: Special registration is required for boards participating in this Saturday session.

"How to Run for ASBA Board Positions" - The Hispanic/Native American Caucus will host this workshop, which may be attended by any interested SLI attendee.

Registration

Register online by July 16 at azsba.org

Registration fee is $175/members, $350/non-members and includes all materials, two lunches, Thursday reception and Friday dinner. For room reservations at the special $99 single/double rate, call 800-352-4386 by July 1 and tell them you are with ASBA.

Questions? 602-254-1100 or 800-238-4701

